LOT 2591

An Edwardian oak writing box, the hinged lid and fall front enclosing a letter rack, a writing slope, drawers and inkwells, height 28cm, width 41cm, together with a late 19th century slate and marble mantel timepiece, width 20cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

2591. Some minor surface cracks to the veneer on the top front corners of the top and a small area of repair to front top edge of fall front. An area of scuffed indentations to fall flap and overall light surface bumps. The interior leather areas are a little worn and the writing surface is split across the middle. Otherwise in quite nice condition.
