LOT 2806

A George II needlework sampler by Charlotte Martin, dated 1758, finely worked in coloured silks with lines of verse within bands of flowering vines, 35cm x 29cm, within a bird's eye maple frame.

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2806. Generally good colours with no clear stains or browning. There are a few spots of damage - right hand side border about halfway down, a few very small holes and also some slight loss of thread to some of the border flowerheads. The frame has a small nick off the veneer to one corner.
