LOT 1125

A Chinese export porcelain plate and matching soup plate, late Qianlong/Jiaqing period and later, each later painted with a half-length portrait of a standing maiden grooming the beard of a seated gentleman, within a trellis rim divided by four bird and grass vignettes, diameters 26.2cm and 23.2cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1125. Both dishes are in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. There are a few very minor chips to both rims, there is some very minor surface wear and scratches to the enamels and gilding. PLEASE NOTE that in our opinion the painting is later in date than the porcelain.
