LOT 1055

A Chinese famille rose porcelain bottle vase, probably Republic period, painted with two red-capped cranes and a peacock beside pink peonies beneath a pine tree and magnolia, opposing lines of black script with a red seal, red printed seal mark to base, height 36cm.

Estimate: £300 - £400

Condition Report

1055. In good condition with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some very minor wear and surface scratches to glaze and enamels, good bright vibrant enamels overall. There is an approx 1 by 0.3cm firing scar/blemish to the neck interior - a manufacturing issue not visible to the exterior. Good clear red seal mark to base.
