LOT 394

A Victorian silver mustard, the circular baluster body with engraved decoration, the hinged dome lid with foliate finial and scroll thumbpiece, above a scroll handle, London 1876 by Samuel Smily, height 8.4cm, together with a late Victorian silver oval mustard with pierced and embossed decoration, Chester 1897, height 6cm.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

394. Circular mustard - the hinge lid sits a little high when closed so minor adjustment needed. Few small dents to body but otherwise ok. Minor rubbing to marks but still readable. Glass liner in good condition.

Oval mustard - generally good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Good clear hallmarks. Glass liner in good condition.
