LOT 2504

A pair of late 19th century silvered spelter models of cherubs, standing on associated brass mounted green glazed pedestals, height 38cm.

Estimate: £60 - £90

Condition Report

2504. The cherubs are probably silvered at a slightly later date and have some overall surface marks and scuffs, but generally are in fair condition. The white painted wooden plinth is an associated later applied mount. The green bases have overall slight wear and one has some loss to the beaded edging along the top of the green section.
