LOT 2091

An 18th century oak circular cricket table, on three outswept turned legs united by block stretchers, height 60cm, diameter 69cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

2091. All the essential elements of the table are original and in fair condition, all having a degree of historic woodworm, some overall surface wear, damage and cracks to top, commensurate with age and use. The underside show that there are later added support bars attached.
