

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 15th October 2020 / Lot 1135

LOT 1135

A late 19th/early 20th century French brass and porcelain carriage clock with eight day movement repeating and striking hours and half hours on a gong, the backplate stamped 'JWB', the porcelain dial painted with flowers on a pink ground, framing a white chapter ring with black Roman numerals and inscribed 'J.W. Benson LD, 25 Old Bond St London', flanked by a pair of similarly decorated porcelain side panels, the case with swing handle, on bracket feet, height 15.4cm, with a leather travelling case, detailed 'J.W. Benson...', and winding key.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

1135. The clock is in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. The brass is slightly discoloured and would benefit from a clean. Bevelled glass and porcelain panels all in good order. It is currently in working order, with strike and repeat mechanism working as they should, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. Travelling case exterior badly worn with some loss to covering.

Created: Fri, 9th October 2020 09:40