A silver and pale green enameled circular pendant locket, decorated with a border of pink flowers, length 3cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

506. The locket is in overall good condition. There is no internal frame and glazing to the back of the interior of the locket and the front of the interior of the locket is fitted with an interior frame holding in a thin sheet of plastic. We do not feel that the locket ever had an internal mirror. The enamel to the front has one or two tiny surface marks and no significant chips or cracks. The locket closes well. There is no significant damage to the back of the locket, with only one or two tiny surface marks. The locket is probably Continental. The interior has a mark of 18 above a flowerhead beneath the blue paper interior. There are no hallmarks to the suspension loops. 9g including interior
