LOT 198

Edith M. Harms - Still Life of a Basket of Primroses, watercolour, early 20th century watercolour, signed, 33.5cm x 53.5cm, within a gilt frame with stiff leaf and berry moulding.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

In good condition commensurate with age. Very light and minor surface mould to the top left corner, looks like it would brush off without staining. Probably slightly faded as colours are a little muted. No evidence of foxing or browning. Frame has been repainted 'gilt' and, underneath which, it looks to have had a heavy scuff to the right hand section. Unexamined out of frame.
