

Arts and Crafts Metalwork and Applied Art / Thu, 5th November 2020 / Lot 2574

LOT 2574

A late 19th/early 20th century Arts and Crafts copper charger, attributed to Norman and Ernest Spittle, Birmingham, finely worked with a central sea creature within a raised border of hearts and roundels, diameter 51cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

2574. Wear and slight loss to three of the four protruding edges and some slight surface wear and scuffs. One slight indented edge and some other minor dents.

Created: Wed, 28th October 2020 08:31