

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 5th November 2020 / Lot 2745

LOT 2745

A Victorian Gothic Revival pollard oak and brass bound four-bottle decanter box, the lid interior with twin-door compartment, height 32cm, width 24.5cm (lacking decanters).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

2745. The box has had a certain level of restoration, with some overcleaning around brass mounts, some small repairs around the mounts, thin surface crack across top, one later screw to right handle, small crack to base board and slight loss to rear corner. The interior has a detached compartment door and slight cracks around hinges.

Created: Wed, 28th October 2020 14:49