

Arts and Crafts Furniture / Thu, 5th November 2020 / Lot 2542

LOT 2542

An early 20th century Heals pale oak Letchworth dining table, designed by Philip Tilden, the rectangular top raised on four column supports and bracket feet, bearing inset maker's plaque to underside, height 74.5cm, length 184cm, depth 75cm. Note: this table was originally designed by Philip Tilden for Winston Churchill at Chartwell in the 1920s and was then produced by Heals commercially.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

---

Condition Report

2542. Good overall clean condition.

Created: Mon, 2nd November 2020 12:24