

Collectors' Items, Works of Art and Light Fittings / Thu, 5th November 2020 / Lot 2579

LOT 2579

An early 19th century finely carved coconut bugbear powder flask of Napoleonic interest, one end typically worked with a mask with inset glass eyes and fitted with a silver collar, cap and chains, one side carved with a central portrait of Napoleon Bonaparte below an eagle, the other side with a swan and fruit spray, all above a band of acanthus leaves and eagles, height 12cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

2579. The flask is in generally good overall condition with a deep rich patina, some minor surface wear and a few small scuffs.

Created: Wed, 4th November 2020 16:40