

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1493

LOT 1493

A small Wedgwood caneware game pie dish, liner and cover, circa 1872, the body decorated with game hung from fruiting vine, the cover with rabbit finial, impressed factory marks, height 18cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Each piece in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

The liner and the interior of the pie dish are typically crazed, the liner has some very faint staining to the base interior and an insignificant hairline amidst the crazing at one end - very inconsequential.

Created: Mon, 9th November 2020 14:05