LOT 1806

A large Mdina glass fish vase, designed and signed by Michael Harris, circa 1970, the central section with ochre and blue streaking over a cinnamon ground, heavily cased in a clear body with relief abstract detail, engraved marks to base, height 31cm.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks or chips.

Both side edges of the vase have some minor shaping which is likely to be re-polishing to disguise damage.

There are some typical minor and light surface scratches, but nothing untoward.
