LOT 1620

A David Leach Lowerdown studio pottery porcelain teabowl, the fluted body partially covered in a reduced copper red glaze, impressed seal mark to base, diameter 9.9cm, together with the book 'David Leach' by Emmanuel Cooper.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

The pot has a small adhered kiln blemish to the rim - part of the manufacturing process - otherwise it is in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. It is crazed.

The book is missing part of the back bottom left corner of the cover.
