

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1640

LOT 1640

A Royal Copenhagen bisque shepherd boy with his dog, after Bertel Thorvaldsen, second half 19th century, modelled as a nude boy seated on a rock, holding a staff, his dog seated by his side, underglaze blue wave mark to base, impressed 'Eneret' to side of base, height 16.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

Teeny tiny flat nick to front edge of base almost between dog's front paws, only noticeable on very close inspection, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Mon, 9th November 2020 16:39