LOT 1762

A small Gallé cameo glass vase, early 20th century, the flattened, shouldered tapering frosted body overlaid in amethyst, carved with a flower and stems, cameo signature to side, height 7.7cm (minor chip to carving).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Approx 8mm long narrow chip to relief purple stem on right shoulder of vase - when viewed with large flower at front - please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function and it is just about visible at 2 o'clock on the second image. A number of small surface scratches to body overall. Very teeny tiny nick to base edge of foot - more easily felt than seen - with a similar to scalloped edging above main flower and tiny blemish to left shoulder.
