

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1451

LOT 1451

An Aynsley cobalt blue ground set of six coffee cans and saucers with gilt overlaid decoration, held within silver holders with engine turned decoration, Birmingham 1912 by Charles S Green & Co Ltd, cased (faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Saucers - each in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Cups - one has a stained crack running the diameter of the base, one is missing a triangular shaped section of the rim approx 2.5cm long by 0.5cm wide, three have some very minor crazing and incredibly light staining.

Silver holders - each in good condition.

Case - very tired and worn overall with rips, lifting of covering and staining to interior.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 08:38