

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1483

LOT 1483

A Worcester Parian figure of Isambard K. Brunel, circa 1860, modelled by J. Durham, standing with folded arms before rockwork, impressed factory mark to base with impressed sculptor's name and date to reverse, height 50cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

Tiny flat chip to underside edge of footrim, not noticeable when on a flat surface. Indistinct curved hairline visible to back of figure on close inspection under strong light. Missing approx one third of hat brim which is held under right arm. Missing tiny corner of raised right shirt collar. Manufacturer's black pitting to Parian noticeably on nose and top lip.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 10:28