

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1480

LOT 1480

A Copeland & Garrett Felspar Porcelain part service, mid-19th century, painted with floral bouquets against a pale green ground decorated with dark green stars and dots, comprising three graduated oval platters, tureen and cover, seventeen dinner plates, eleven soup plates and thirteen dessert plates, pattern No. 5842 (minor faults).

Estimate: £120 - £180

---

Condition Report

1480. Largest platter width 30.5cm, smallest platter width 26cm. One small platter is crazed overall. Tureen & cover, width 29cm. Cover has star crack near handle. Dinner plates, diameter 25.5cm. One with faint hairline to rim. Soup plates, diameter 25cm. Two cracked, one heavily stained. Dessert plates, diameter 22cm. One with small nibble to inner edge.

Overall there is some wear to the gilding, minor wear to the inner edge of plates where they have been stacked and some light surface scratching.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 11:44