

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1512

LOT 1512

A Wileman & Co Foley China aesthetic decorated part service, circa 1900, comprising two cake plates, eleven tea plates, slop bowl, jug, ten teacups and twelve saucers, pattern No. 6885 (minor faults), together with a Staffordshire pink lustre part service, 19th century (minor faults).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1512. Foley service:

Cups - one chipped and cracked, one with chip to rim, others ok

Milk jug - minor crazing, crack to spout

Bowl - minor crazing, hairline cracks, one running from rim to base

Saucers - two cracked, one with overall crazing, others ok

Tea plates - one with crack running across diameter, one with some crazing, otherwise all ok.

Service has some minor wear to gilding and surfaces.

Staffordshire service:

Teapot - finial to lid is repaired

Sugar - cracked

Bowl - heavily stained, overall crazed

Cups - two cracked, one with broken handle

Cake plates - one with chip to inner edge

The service generally has crazing, staining to a number of pieces and wear to the decoration.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 10:35