

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1695

LOT 1695

A group of Continental porcelain figures, late 19th/20th century, comprising a pair of figures by Sitzendorf, height 27cm, a Sitzendorf figure group of two lamb shearers, height 14cm, a set of four figures representing the seasons and a set of four street figures (some faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Pair figures - both in good condition overall with very minor and indistinct nicks to the applied flowers and foliage, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Figure group of shearers - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Four Seasons - Spring missing most of ribbon bow on head and part of right hand with minor losses to flowers and foliage. Summer has glued repair to neck, large chip to back corner of base, chipping to hat brim and missing most of scythe held in hand. Autumn with chipping to applied leaves and bows and missing part of neck tie. Winter is generally ok.

Four street figures - Hurdy-gurdy player with manufacturers firing crack to hat, otherwise OK. Man with bandaged hand generally in good order. Rat catcher missing left arm and with small chip to base. Poacher with glued repair to neck, large chip to hat brim and missing right arm.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 12:56