

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1320

LOT 1320

A large Dresden figure group, 20th century, modelled with a family wearing lace detailed clothing, blue printed mark to base, length 32cm, together with four other Continental porcelain figures (minor faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

Main group - considering the huge amount of intricate lace detail to the group it is in incredibly good condition with only a few very insignificant losses, no restoration, no chips and no cracks.

Two larger figures - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, some tiny losses to applied flowers and foliage.

Two smaller figures - boy has chip to hat brim, girl has glued repair to neck.

Created: Fri, 13th November 2020 14:37