

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1333

LOT 1333

Two Continental bisque figures of reclining nudes, length 11cm and 14cm, a Royal Doulton figure Priscilla, HN1340, a bisque group of children seated on a bench, six glass scent bottles and stoppers and a Bohemian glass vase.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2 bisque figures - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Hn1340 - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Bisque group - basket on floor missing handle, fingers missing from hand raised to central boy's mouth, minor chipping to front edge of base, otherwise ok.

Glass vase - light wear to gilding, ok.

Scent bottles - minor nick to tip of one clear faceted stopper, green example with chip to top rim edge, ruby flashed example quite chipped overall, turquoise example with typical wear to gilding, uranium example with chipping.

Created: Mon, 16th November 2020 10:47