

Glassware / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1710

LOT 1710

A large Whitefriars glass knobbly vase, 1960s, designed by Wilson and Dyer, with streaks of green, height 25.5cm, an optic moulded vase, height 22cm, a streaky vase, height 12cm, and a controlled bubble amber bowl, diameter 24.5cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

Each piece has typical wear to the foot commensurate with age and use.

Knobbly Vase - typical light surface scratches to exterior overall, nothing untoward. Limescale markings to interior. In good condition overall.

Optic Vase - heavy, concentrated, extensive scratching to interior, otherwise ok.

Streaky Vase - one main scratch to exterior approx 2cm long, otherwise ok with light typical surface wear, nothing untoward.

Bowl - some long scratches to exterior, typical scratches to base interior.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 10:30