

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1438

LOT 1438

A diminutive Moorcroft pottery vase, 1970s, the globular body decorated with hibiscus against a blue ground, height 5cm, together with a similar cylindrical jar and cover, height 9.5cm, and a small group of ceramics including a Meissen style salt (faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

Diminutive Moorcroft vase - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, typical crazing to glaze.

Moorcroft jar and cover - typical crazing to glaze, narrow chip to underside edge of cover.

Salt - both oval baskets with chip to rim, in addition one with haircrack, putto missing part of drapery at back of figure.

Pair shell salts - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Two cups - one with small chip to upper rim edge, gilt rims worn.

Two saucers - both with crack and chip to rim, gilt rims worn.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 12:10