

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1355

LOT 1355

An Italian Art Nouveau two-handled pottery vase, circa 1900, the squat bulbous body with flared neck, relief decorated with gilt enriched whiplash detail and flanked by naturalistic handles, covered in a simulated bronze glaze, impressed mark with 'VENEZIA' to base, height 10.5cm.

Estimate: £30 - £50

---

Condition Report

1355. Overall the finish is not the highest quality, with a few imperfections to the body, including a small dent to one side. General wear to gilt decoration. Couple of tiny nicks to glaze near one handle revealing the pottery body. Otherwise ok.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 12:15