

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1462

LOT 1462

A rectangular porcelain plaque, painted with a family of deer, 20th century, impressed 'K319' to reverse, 30cm x 22cm, framed, together with two panels painted with birds by N. Creed, 10cm square, framed.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

Tiny spot of rubbing to very top right corner of deer panel amidst sky - please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function where this can be identified.

Otherwise each of the plaques in good condition.

Created: Tue, 17th November 2020 16:32