

Glassware / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1775

LOT 1775

A green iridescent glass vase of Loetz Silberiris type, circa 1900, the lobed bulbous body beneath a tapering neck with everted rim, height 12.5cm, together with an iridescent glass bowl, applied with horizontal purple trailed decoration to the opaque milky white body, diameter 28.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Green vase - In good condition overall with nice expected wear to base.

Bowl - light wear and surface scratches to interior, two tiny indistinct losses to purple trailing on exterior - only noticeable on close inspection. No cracks or chips.

Created: Wed, 18th November 2020 10:21