

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1509

LOT 1509

A Rye Pottery vase, early 20th century, the baluster body applied with hops, height 10cm, (minor restoration to rim), together with a mixed group of ceramics and glass, including a Gaudy Welsh mug, Royal commemorative's, a miniature stoneware trio and a Staffordshire spaniel (some faults).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

Please note only part of the lot reported on, as follows;

Murano millefiori vase - height 3.8cm, diameter 5.5cm. In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Thu, 19th November 2020 09:04