

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1658

LOT 1658

A Coalport dessert service, early 20th century, the cobalt blue ground rims with gilt overlaid and edged detail, comprising twelve plates, diameter 22.5cm, a tazza (restored) and two dishes, pattern No. 6079, green printed and impressed factory marks, together with a Coalport part service, decorated with floral panels within gilt overlaid cobalt blue rims, including a square serving plate, coffee cups, tea plates and saucers.

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

Blue and Gilt service;

Plates - all in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Tazza - visibly extensively restored.

2 stands - both with crazing, otherwise ok.

Floral part service;

haircracks to jug

tea plates - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, 3 have some wear to the gilding on the cavetto.

coffee saucers - one heavily crazed, otherwise all ok.

tea saucers - one with minor chip to footrim, otherwise all ok.

cups - one ok, others crazed and one with small chip to rim.

Created: Thu, 19th November 2020 09:43