

Silver and Plate / Wed, 25th November 2020 / Lot 363

LOT 363

A late Victorian silver mounted cut glass claret jug, the silver collar with hinged lid and downswept foliate capped scroll handle, the ovoid body with diamond and facet cut decoration, Birmingham 1899 by Barker Brothers, height 21.5cm, together with a small group of other silver and plated items, including an early 19th century toddy ladle with twisted whale bone handle.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

363. Claret jug - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear. Glass in good order. Slight rubbing to hallmarks, but still perfectly readable. Hinge to lid in good working order.

Silver ladle - generally good condition, typical light wear and scratches and minor misshaping to stem.

Mustard spoon - generally good order. Good clear marks. Slightly misshapen stem.

Punch ladle - good condition, no significant damage or repairs. Typical light surface scratches and wear.

Created: Fri, 20th November 2020 12:51