LOT 1050

A Chinese silver wire inlaid hardwood and glazed table top display case and stand, late Qing dynasty, of square form, the top inlaid with archaistic scrolls and carved in low relief with scroll borders framing an arrangement of seventeen glazed panels to top and sides, the stand carved and pierced with a band of pierced scroll panels to the frieze above a shaped apron on scroll carved feet, carved five-character mark to apron, height 29.5cm, width 53.5cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £1,000 - £1,500

Condition Report

Generally in good condition. The cover is all individually glazed panels, they are all in good condition except for a small crack to the corner of one side panel. Wire inlay in good order and structurally the cover is very sound. The stand is also structurally sound, the pierced frieze panels have some losses to pierced work to varying degrees - five slightly worse than the others. Typical scuffs, knocks and surface scratches/wear overall commensurate with age and use.

PLEASE NOTE - below is an update to the original condition report on this item.
There is a crack running diagonally across one of the top corner panels of the cover.
