

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1150

LOT 1150

A Chinese famille rose porcelain saucer dish, mark of Daoguang and probably of the period, finely painted with a pavilion and walled garden surrounded by trees, rocks, lotus pond and other plants, the pavilion inhabited by a female dignitary and her attendant, as a guard patrols the garden, all beneath polychrome vapours on a gilt ground, the turquoise glazed underside framing a red enamelled seal mark to base, diameter 24.5cm (minor hairline to rim).

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,500

Condition Report

Generally in good condition, there is a very faint 3cm hairline to the rim at 6 o'clock which is not obviously noticeable, otherwise no chips or restoration. The enamels and gilt are good, fresh and vibrant.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 16:06