

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1130

LOT 1130

A Chinese underglaze blue and red porcelain bowl, mark of Xuande but Kangxi period, painted in underglaze blue and copper red, the exterior with four fish swimming amongst lotus flowerheads, the interior with a central circular panel of a leaping fish, beneath a band filled with fish, crab, crayfish and shells, underglaze blue apocryphal six-character mark within double ring to base, height 9.8cm, diameter 20.2cm.

Estimate: £4,000 - £6,000

Condition Report

Generally in good condition with no significant damage or repairs, surface scratches and wear to glaze particularly to the base of the bowl interior and to the rim which also has some minor nicks/fritting. There is a 1.5cm hairline and small chip to the footrim and also a firing blemish to the footrim. Good clear six character mark to base.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 16:13