

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1100

LOT 1100

A Chinese famille rose porcelain vase, mark of Daoguang and possibly of the period, the yellow ground flared neck filled with lotus, scrolling tendrils, peach, bats and gilt shou characters, flanked by a pair of iron red and polychrome embellished scroll handles, the shouldered ovoid body painted with fruiting branches hanging over flowers, rocks and lingzhi fungus, above a yellow ground ruyi head border and a blue keyfret foot, the interior and base turquoise enamelled framing an iron red seal mark, height 29cm. Provenance: from a French private collection.

Estimate: £2,000 - £4,000

---

Condition Report

Generally in good condition, no chips, cracks or restoration. Enamels are bright and vibrant. Some typical light wear to gilt and some wear to enamels, all of which should be visible in our online images using the zoom function.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 16:14