

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1219

LOT 1219

A Chinese pebble jade carving, early 20th century, one side carved in low relief with two rams chewing lingzhi branches within a cave, the stone of grey tone with russet inclusions, length 8.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

In good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs, typical light surface wear and scratches.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 16:56