

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1203

LOT 1203

A Chinese pale celadon jade plaque, Qing dynasty, carved and pierced with a goose amidst lotus, length 8cm (some loss).

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

There is a significant section to the lower left corner of the carving that has been broken and is missing, also some loss to the top left hand corner and some other minor chips and losses to scrolls. There is also a hairline inclusion to the underside of the bird running up to the wing.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 16:59