

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1290

LOT 1290

A Chinese pale celadon jade pendant, probably late Qing dynasty or later, carved as two cats, length 5.8cm, together with another pale celadon jade pendant in the form of a pea pod, length 8.4cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Cat pendant - in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Pea pod - also in good condition with a couple of tiny nicks to edges.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 17:33