

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1095

LOT 1095

A Japanese brown patinated bronze two-handled vase, Meiji period, of baluster form with flared neck issuing a pair of openwork scroll handles, the body cast with opposing stylized owl masks, on a circular foot, unsigned, height 26.2cm.

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

In good condition with no damage or repairs, nice attractive patina with only typical light surface scratches.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 17:40