

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1281

LOT 1281

A Chinese Imari export porcelain mug, Qianlong period, the baluster body painted and gilt with opposing flower charged jardinières, height 15cm (cracked to handle).

Estimate: £50 - £100

---

Condition Report

There is a crack across the middle of the handle, otherwise the mug is in generally good condition with a small chip to the rim approx 6 by 2mm, small chip to footrim and 2 small firing cracks to rim. Enamels and gilding good with only typical light wear/rubbing.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 17:41