

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1320

LOT 1320

A near pair of Chinese porcelain vases, mark of Qianlong but probably Republic period, each of square baluster section, painted with opposing rectangular panels of figures in landscape, flanked by opposing panels of black calligraphic text and two red seals, between borders of iron red and black lotus and scrolling tendrils, iron red four-character mark to base, height 14cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

1320. Both vases in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. No apparent cracks, chips or restoration. Typical light surface scratches and wear to the gilt along edges. This wear is easily visible in the online photographs which can be enlarged as required.

Created: Tue, 1st December 2020 12:45