

Objects of Virtu / Monday, 14th December 2020 / Lot 2538

LOT 2538

A late 18th/early 19th century French ivory and paper folding fan, the carved and pierced guards and sticks with painted decoration, the paper panel with hand-colour printed scenes of Classical women by a lakeside, the reverse with a group of figures playing with pond yachts, length 30cm, within a Nathalie, Sloane Street, London box.

Estimate: £100 - £200

---

Condition Report

2538. The guards and sticks appear to have a slightly discoloured varnish to the surface and there is an old repair to the end of one guard. Also an old tape mark and repair to the same area but to the paper panel. The panel has some areas of minor wear and tear.

Created: Wed, 2nd December 2020 10:12