

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1158

LOT 1158

A Chinese famille rose porcelain vase, late Qing dynasty, the baluster body painted with butterflies on a ground of overlapping leaves, flanked by a pair of iron red handles, height 45.5cm (hairline crack to rim).

Estimate: £70 - £100

---

Condition Report

There are two 6cm hairline cracks running vertically from the rim, otherwise the vase is in generally good condition with typical surface scratches and wear to enamels. There are a couple of minor chips to the inside edge of the footrim.

Neck interior dirty.

Created: Thu, 3rd December 2020 11:59