

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1227

LOT 1227

A group of ten Chinese Yixing stoneware teapots and covers, 20th century and modern, including a circular teapot, incised with lotus and characters, height 12cm, and a plain circular teapot and cover, height 6.8cm, the majority with impressed marks to bases and covers (one with damaged cover).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Small plain circular teapot and cover - minute nick to inner rim edge where cover sits, not noticeable when cover in place.

Branch handle and foliate detail to body - extensive damage to cover.

Branch handle and pine detail to body - missing tiny bit of relief branch to finial of cover.

The other 7 teapots each in good condition with no apparent damage or restoration.

Created: Thu, 3rd December 2020 16:16