

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1364

LOT 1364

A Chinese gilt bronze and cloisonné wine pot, probably Jiaqing/Daoguang period, the globular body decorated with polychrome fruiting vine on a pale blue/turquoise ground, flanked by a cast naturalistic vine handle and spout with squirrels, further squirrel finial to leaf shaped cover, height 8.3cm, length 11.9cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £1,500 - £2,000

Condition Report

In generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Some slight pitting to enamel in places, some slight discolouration to metalwork. Otherwise colours are bright and vibrant. Very minor enamel loss beneath handle. Some slight misshaping to inner bronze rim of cover.

Created: Thu, 3rd December 2020 16:53