LOT 1098

A near pair of Chinese famille rose export style porcelain brush rests, Qing dynasty, each of curved form, moulded in relief and pierced with three long-tailed squirrels clambering over fruiting vines, on an iron red base, lengths 11.6cm and 11.4cm, with two wood stands.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

1098. Both figures in good condition with no significant damage or repair. Typical light surface scratches and wear to enamels. One with small firing crack to front of base.

The wood stands do not match. Both are in generally good condition, the carved one with minor chip to edge.
