

Objects of Virtu / Monday, 14th December 2020 / Lot 2503

LOT 2503

Attributed to John Commerford - a 19th century watercolour on ivory oval miniature portrait of a young gentleman, mounted within a yellow metal glazed frame, the reverse inset with woven hair and a gilt metal initial, 8cm x 5.7cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

---

Condition Report

2503. The portrait itself is in good order with no visible signs of surface damage. There are a few scratches to the glass front on both sides and some slight wear to the frame. Small repair to suspension loop joint on frame.

Created: Tue, 8th December 2020 12:39